Figaro fig liqueur was the first of our discoveries.

In a village of twelve families, nine of which owned distilleries, in the heart of the Algarve hills in the 19th century, it was customary to offer passing travellers spirits made from locally grown fruits.

In that village, thanks to the skill and passion of a Portuguese artisan, a unique liqueur was created by macerating figs in their own spirit.

Since 2024, Figaro has been produced by Distillerie Aragonesi on the island of Ischia.
